

Jun. 26, 2006

United States Supreme Court denies York's application for a writ of certiorari, 2255 motion is filed. Notably, this is Rev. Dr. Yorke's Birthday.

Jun. 20, 2007

H.E. Rev. Dr. Yorke files civil action against Federal Bureau of Prisons, citing 8th Amendment violations of Cruel & Unusual Punishment and requesting medical transfer from USP Administrative Max Prison in Florence, CO

Feb. 18, 2009

Magistrate Judge recommends that Dr. Yorke's motion to vacate, set aside or correct sentence pursuant to 28 U.S.C§ 2255 be denied.

July 7, 2009

H.E. Rev. Dr. Yorke's Civil Action against Federal Bureau of Prisons for Medical Transfer is denied.

September, 2009

The Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals reviews Dr. Yorke's Certificate of appealability.

Jan. 6, 2006

United States Court of Appeals for the 11th circuit enters a final judgment affirming Yorke's conviction and sentence.

Mar. 25, 2008

H.E. Rev. Dr. York's Defense Attorney submits the response to 2255 motion.

June 1, 2009

H.E. Rev. Dr. Yorke's Civil Action against Federal Bureau of Prisons for Medical Transfer is denied.

August 26, 2009

A certificate of appealability outlining the denial of H.E. Rev. Dr. Yorke's constitutional rights, judicial biasness and prosecutorial misconduct, is filed at the U S District Courthouse in Macon GA.